Narrative by GABRIEL, JOSHUA

On 04/14/2025, I, Ofc J. Gabriel (2225), responded to [redacted] regarding an information report.

I met with (RP) [redacted] who advised of a very unusual incident that occurred on 04/13/2025 involving her son (IO-1) [redacted] advised that her ex-husband [redacted] father dropped him off around 07:30 pm. She received a text that he was downstairs and awaited his arrival. She grew concerned When she noticed he had not come to the apartment. She looked at his location and saw it was still in the building. [redacted] sent a few texts before she went down to look for her son. [redacted] finally received a text from her son stating he was helping a disabled person enter their apartment, later identified as (IO-2) Alexandria Dzimitowicz. She was relieved that he was okay. When she asked when he was coming home, she did not respond and began to call, but got a message saying that he was still at apt 308 helping. [redacted] became frustrated and went downstairs to see what was going on, and when she knocking at the door, [redacted] opened it, and they went home. It wasn't till later that [redacted] told his mother what he had to do, which upset her, and notified the authorities. [redacted] told her that Dzimitowics asked if he could help her take a bath, which he obliged and helped her undress and enter the tub; he then waited until she was done and helped her out of the tub. He then had to make her bed and help clothe her. When [redacted] heard this, she became upset as she mentioned what type of person would ask a minor to help them take a bath, etc.

I then spoke with [redacted] It should be noted that he was alone, and his mother was not within earshot of the conversation. [redacted] explained that he got home around 7:30 pm and made his way to the elevator; while there, Dzimitowicz also entered the elevator. She began making small talk, asking what the Florida public school system was like. And how old he was? [redacted] replied and was then asked if he was able to assist her with getting into her apartment. [redacted] agreed and helped; while inside, [redacted] asked if that was all. And Dzimitowicz asked if he could assist her in taking a bath. [redacted] found that request to be rather unusual but asked himself (WWJD), what would Jesus do? With minor hesitation, [redacted] helped undress Dzimitowicz and helped her into the tub. While there, he advised that he did not look as it would be disrespectful, but Dzimitowicz made another unusual request as she asked if he could get her a beer. Confused by the request as he told her that he is 13, he advised that he didn't want to make it seem that he was not being helpful, so he went down to Velvet and asked, and they obviously did not give him the alcohol. When he went back up, he then helped her out of the tub and proceeded to help her dress for bed, make her bed, and put on a mask that assisted with her sleeping, at which point his mother was knocking at the door demanding that he go back home and that the woman should be ashamed as she asked a minor to do those things.

I then Spoke to Dzimitowicz, who advised that she did not mean any harm to [redacted] or his mother. Dzimitowicz stated that she has a lot of issues obtaining a state nurse who works around the clock. She advised that her roommate is usually there to help, but with her roommate's new engagement she is almost never home. Dzimitowicz stated that she saw this opportunity to have someone help her get to bed, so she took a chance to ask for help. Dzimitowicz advised that [redacted] was nice and helpful and that she was intoxicated at the time as she stated she came from the (WHARF); she mentioned that her judgment should have been a lot better, but she just needed someone to assist with her getting to bed. When questioned about the purchase of the beer, Dzimitowicz stated that she asked if [redacted] could use the UBER app to order beer for her and specifically her, but when the delivery arrived, it was ginger beer.

Due to the nature of the incident, the SVU detective was notified regarding the matter CCN (1918). Both Dzimitowicz and [redacted] advised that nothing happened. [redacted] advised that he helped out in good faith as he saw that she was disabled. There was no indication of prior messages between the two involved as Officer Campbell CCN (1896) browsed through the phone history. [redacted] did sign on behalf of her son regarding Marsy Law for form and victim affidavit with pursuing prosecution pending investigation. Photos that [redacted] obtained were uploaded to Axon via a community link. All documents were submitted to records.

No further incident.

Narrative by PAGE, CHRISTINA

On 04/18/25, I was assigned this case in reference to a follow-up investigation. During my investigation, I reviewed the original incident report written by FLPD Officer J. Gabriel #2225. Officer Gabriel documented that on 04/14/25, he responded to the apartment complex at the listed location in reference to an incident that occurred the day prior.

Upon his arrival, he met with the reportee, [redacted] who stated that the day prior, 04/13/25, her son, [redacted] who was 13 YO at the time, was dropped off by his father at approximately 7:30 PM. After some time had passed, she became concerned because he had not arrived at their apartment. [redacted] looked at her son's location and saw that he was in the building, so she began texting him. Eventually, she received a response from [redacted] stating that he was helping a "disabled person enter their apartment." This person was later identified as Alexandria Dzimitowicz. [redacted] asked [redacted] when he was coming home, but she did not get a response. She began calling him, but he responded that he was still at Apartment #308.

[redacted] was frustrated and went downstairs to apartment #308. When she knocked on the door, [redacted] answered the door and they went home.

Later, [redacted]. told his mother what had actually occurred, and she contacted the police.

[redacted] reported to police that [redacted] told her that Alexandria Dzimitowicz asked [redacted]. to help her take a bath. This included him helping her get undressed and enter the bathtub. He then waited until she was done and helped her out of the bathtub. [redacted]. told his mother that he then made her bed and helped clothe her. [redacted] expressed that she was upset that an adult would ask a child to do this.

Officers spoke with [redacted] on scene, who stated that he arrived home at approximately 7:30 PM and went to the elevator to head back to his apartment. When he entered the elevator from the lobby, Alexandria Dzimitowicz also entered the elevator. She began making "small talk" and asking him how the school system was. Alexandria Dzimitowicz asked [redacted]. his age and then asked if he was able to assist her with getting into her apartment, [redacted] agreed.

While inside the apartment, [redacted] asked if "that was all" and Alexandria Dzimitowicz asked if he could assist her in taking a bath. [redacted]. then helped Alexandria Dzimitowicz undress and then helped her into the bathtub. [redacted]. then stated that Alexandria Dzimitowicz asked him to get her a beer. Although he was confused by the request, because he had told her he was 13 YO, he didn't want it to seem as though he wasn't helpful, so he went down to a restaurant and tried to purchase the alcohol for Alexandria Dzimitowicz. The restaurant declined to sell him the alcohol on Alexandria Dzimitowicz's behalf.

[redacted]. returned to the apartment and helped Alexandria Dzimitowicz out of the bathtub and got her dressed. He made her bed and then put a mask on her that would assist her with her sleeping. He then heard his mother knocking at the door, demanding that he go back home.

While on scene, Officer Gabriel made contact with Alexandria Dzimitowicz. She told officers that she "did not mean any harm" to [redacted]. or his mother. She claimed that she has had issues getting a nurse and her roommate normally helps her, but her roommate was busy with her "new engagement." Alexandria Dzimitowicz stated that she had just left the local bar, The Wharf, and was intoxicated. She advised that she saw an opportunity to have someone help her get to bed, so she "took a chance to ask for help." Alexandria Dzimitowicz admitted that her "judgement should have been a lot better", but she just needed someone to assist her with getting to bed.

Officers confronted Alexandria Dzimitowicz about asking [redacted]. to buy her beer. She stated that she asked [redacted] to order her beer through the UBER application, but when the delivery arrived, it was Ginger Beer.

At the conclusion of Officer Gabriel's on-scene investigation, [redacted] advised that she desired prosecution on behalf of her 13 YO son, [redacted] informed Officer Gabriel that she learned that Alexandria Dzimitowicz had an OnlyFans account that she produced nude photographs of herself. She also learned that Alexandria Dzimitowicz had a small child, which was not at home during the incident, and believed that she was involved in previous child neglect cases. Officer Gabriel provided [redacted] with an evidence.com citizens upload link in order for her to provide these documents.

On 04/29/25, [redacted]. responded to the Fort Lauderdale Police Department for a forensic interview. This interview was audio/video recorded and uploaded into evidence.com.

I, Detective Page, met with [redacted], who was now 14 years old. While speaking with [redacted] he was able to determine the difference between a truth and a lie and promised to tell me the truth. He described that he is in advanced placement classes and appeared to be very educated for his age. After being qualified, [redacted] explained that on the date of the incident, he had just arrived home and entered the elevator in the building lobby. While on the elevator, a "lady in a wheelchair" also entered the elevator with him. He stated that her apartment was on the 3rd floor and his was on the 20th floor. While in the elevator, the "lady" asked him how old he was, and he informed her that he was 13 YO. She then commented to him that he "looked like [he] could pick something up", to which he "chuckled" to. He added that he was trying to be polite but not engage in conversation.

When the elevator opened, she asked him if he could help her with something. He stated that he had an internal dialogue thought of "it's a person in a wheelchair" and told her "sure." He though she needed help "carrying a case of water or something." [redacted]. followed her to her apartment and she went inside. He stood outside and asked if she needed help inside, and she responded "yea." They went into the apartment, and she led him to her kitchen island and asked him to help her put her ID card and phone on the kitchen island; these items were on her lap. So, he complied and then asked her if "that was all."

[redacted] looked to become uncomfortable during the interview and then proceeded to describe that Alexandria Dzimitowicz then asked him to help "put her in the bathtub, right, for twenty dollars, right." He described that he wanted money to buy something but didn't think to himself that she would "need" to be "naked", so he agreed.

Prior to putting her in the bathtub, she asked [redacted] to go on her phone and buy her beer. So, he went on the UBER Eats app and ordered her beer. She told him to specifically buy Michelob Ultra beer, but he couldn't find it and just picked the first one he saw.

After approximately 15 minutes, she decided it was taking too long, and asked [redacted] to help her take a bath. She asked him to help her take her clothes off. He explained that he thought to himself, "Oohh. I mean it makes sense I guess, but I didn't know I would have to do that." I asked if he took her clothes off or if she took her own clothes off. He stated that she couldn't take her own clothes off because she was "crippled." He added that he was trying to be "mature" and just "get it done." [redacted]. described that he took a "long shirt" off of Alexandria Dzimitowicz, "almost like a dress" that was covering her whole body. He added that she did not have any other pieces of clothing on; i.e. underwear or bra. After he took the "long shirt" off, I asked what he could see, and he responded, "her chest." Which he clarified to mean "her boobs." He stated that he couldn't "see" any other parts of her body, however, she was in fact completely naked and exposed.

[redacted]. described that Alexandria Dzimitowicz instructed him to grab her under her legs and behind her back, like a baby, and place her in the bath. He thought that he would be able to leave after that, but then Alexandria Dzimitowicz asked him to go downstairs to the "taco place" that was attached to their building and get her beer; he later stated it was called "Red Velvet." He explained that he knew they wouldn't sell alcohol to him, but he didn't want to go outside of the apartment and come back inside and lie that he tried. So he went downstairs and attempted to buy the beer for her. They "obviously" didn't sell him any beer so he returned to the apartment.

When [redacted]. went back into the apartment, he asked Alexandria Dzimitowicz if she needed him to take her out of the bathtub, which she said yes. So he began asking her when she would be done. During this time, Alexandria Dzimitowicz tracked her UBER eats "beer" order to see when it would be delivered.

I asked [redacted]. if he assisted Alexandria Dzimitowicz in bathing herself, such as washing her, and he responded, "no." He added that she kept asking him to make the water hotter.

After she was done with the bath, [redacted]. placed a towel on the wheelchair and then picked her up out of the bathtub, in the same manner he put her in, and placed her back on her wheelchair. He gave her another towel to put on herself to cover herself up since she was naked, but she did not use the towel and remained naked and exposed to [redacted].

When the UBER Eats "beer" order finally arrived, [redacted] collected it and gave it to Alexandria Dzimitowicz. She asked him to put it in a cup for her and put the rest in the fridge, which he did.

Afterwards, Alexandria Dzimitowicz asked [redacted]. to put her in her bed, but he needed to change her sheets, because she had previously "peed" the bed. So, he put new sheets on the bed and then placed her on top of the bed. At this time, Alexandria Dzimitowicz was still naked. [redacted]. put a blanket on her, as well as a CPAP breathing machine and a pillow.

[redacted]. stated that his mom continued calling him, so he finally told her where he was. His mom came to the apartment and told Alexandria Dzimitowicz that [redacted]. couldn't be anywhere without telling her where he was. [redacted]. and his mother then returned to their home.

During his interview, [redacted]. described that the woman told him she was in her 30's and her name was "Alex." He had never met her before and did not know who she was prior to the incident. When asked if he could tell why she was in a wheelchair, [redacted]. described that her arms and legs were really small and her arms were "crippled", which he demonstrated by pulling towards his body a bent manner.

[redacted]. reiterated that Alexandria Dzimitowicz was naked during the incident and never attempted to get dressed. At no point did she ask him to provide her with clothing to re-dress herself or ask him to help her get dressed.

At the end of our interview, I asked [redacted]. if he knew what Alexandria Dzimitowicz did for a living. He stated that he learned that she does "Only Fans" because his mother told him. [redacted]. stated that his father began "searching" Alexandria Dzimitowicz after learning about the incident and found out about the "Only Fans" accounts. [redacted]. stated that the building personnel provided his mother with Alexandria Dzimitowicz's name. [redacted]. stated that he did not know about the "Only Fans" prior to the incident and has not seen the account to this day.

[redacted]. denied Alexandria Dzimitowicz ever touching him inappropriately.

At the conclusion of the interview, [redacted]. stated that he believed Alexandria Dzimitowicz was "really wrong", because she "took advantage" of his "sympathy." He added that she "could have asked anyone in the building", "but it had to be a 13-year-old." When asked what he thought should be done about the situation, [redacted]. stated that thought she "should be kicked out of the building" and "has to stay away, like, six feet from kids maybe."

While reviewing the evidence for this case, I reviewed Officer Gabriel's BWC and observed the following –

Officer Gabriel and Detective Campbell met with Alexandria Dzimitowicz in her apartment (#308). During their encounter, Officer Gabriel asked Alexandria Dzimitowicz what occurred, to which she responded that she had a "few beers" the night prior but described that she saw [redacted]. and asked if he was "free" to help her "go in bed." Alexandria Dzimitowicz described

[redacted] as a "sweet kid" and claimed she "didn't know how old he really was." Alexandria Dzimitowicz stated that [redacted]. "helped [her] go in bed" and she "offered to pay him but never got contact information." She recalled [redacted].'s mother calling "a lot" . and "freaking out", so she told [redacted]. to tell his mother her apartment number so she could see that he was helping her get in bed. Alexandria Dzimitowicz stated that she was already in bed by the time his mother came, but she was angry and said that he was only 13 YO. Alexandria Dzimitowicz told [redacted].'s mother that [redacted]. "only" put her in bed and that he was "super sweet and helpful."

Alexandria Dzimitowicz described herself as a "single disabled mom" and that she just "needed someone to help [her]." She asked Officer Gabriel if she was in trouble and added that the incident was a "caregiving type situation."

A short time later, Officer Gabriel and Detective Campbell returned to Alexandria Dzimitowicz's apartment and spoke with her again. Detective Campbell asked Alexandria Dzimitowicz to explain to her what happened once more. She detailed that she was when she was "coming into" the building, she "saw the kid" and asked him to help her. She stated that he "helped out a bit", because she doesn't have around the clock assistance since she "makes too much money" to qualify for state assistance.

Officers asked if [redacted]. helped her into the bathtub, to which Alexandria Dzimitowicz responded, "yea." Detective Campbell asked her why she didn't mention that earlier, and Alexandria Dzimitowicz responded, "um, idk, just like weird, I didn't want to get in trouble, cause I thought that he was 13 you know what I mean, so im like..." Detective Campbell then asked when she found out how old he was and she claimed that she didn't know his age until his mother told her. Detective Campbell asked Alexandria Dzimitowicz if she asked [redacted]. his age on the elevator, to which she responded, "um I was a bit drunk I don't remember. Im not really sure." She confirmed that she asked him about his school before his mother came to her apartment. Which prompted Detective Campbell to reiterate, "so you knew he was school aged?" Alexandria Dzimitowicz responded, "I knew he was like, yea, like high school, yea."

Alexandria Dzimitowicz also confirmed that she asked [redacted]. to order her "beer" through her UBER eats app but stated that it was "ginger beer" when it arrived.

Alexandria Dzimitowicz began asking if she was in trouble again. The officers asked her how she would feel if it was her daughter instead of [redacted]., and she acknowledged that it was inappropriate.

During my investigation, I attempted to locate video surveillance from the building. However, I was informed that the only video cameras relevant to this case were in the actual lobby, where Alexandria Dzimitowicz and [redacted]. did not have contact. The building manager also informed me that the video was expired and no longer available. He assured me that there are no cameras in the elevator or on the residential floors. Therefore, there were no cameras that would have captured any encounter between [redacted]. and Alexandria Dzimitowicz.

I reviewed the images uploaded to evidence.com from [redacted].'s mother. Three of the images depicted Alexandria Dzimitowicz in her wheelchair. One of these were in a hallway and she was dressed, however, the other two showed her nude, with her breasts exposed. Another photo was uploaded of an "Only Fans" profile with the handle @wheelchairrapunzel and the associated name of "Alex Dacy." The profile has a description of "Exclusive disabled body content, collabs, artistic shots, lingerie + more, *content that TikTok & IG remove", as well as another linked profile, "@wheelchairrapunzelvip" with a description of "for laughtyyyy stuff." Finally, there was another photo uploaded from what appears to be facebook, of Alexandria Dzimitowicz sitting between the legs of an unknown small stature male, while appearing to be massaged on the shoulders. In this photo, Alexandria Dzimitowicz is wearing a lingerie bra.

At this time, all available evidence was uploaded to evidence.com and will be shared with the SAO for case review.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing and that the facts stated therein are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.
